OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY POLICY

A-Live Electrical Services is committed to providing quality electrical solutions to industrial, commercial and manufacturing industries to Western Australian businesses. To develop a name that is synonymous in the industry for high standard of service and workmanship our management team is committed to promoting a culture where harm to our people through work is unacceptable.

To meet this commitment the Company will provide healthy and safe-working conditions for all people associated with our business, including employees, customers, contractors, visitors and members of the public. All A-Live Electrical Services people have a responsibility for implementing this Policy by striving to achieve zero tolerance towards hazards, incidents and accidents.

In order to meet the above requirements A-Live Electrical Services will:

- Demonstrate Leadership and commitment through all its managers and supervisors;
- Provide and maintain a safe work environment, including work conditions, practices and procedures for all employees, contractors and members of the public.
- Develop safety awareness throughout the Company by initial and ongoing training to all employees and contractors.
- Take all practicable steps to eliminate hazards within the workplace through risk identification, assessment, control and monitoring to ensure continuing effectiveness;
- Ensure that all employees and contractors utilise the A-Live Electrical Services Safety Management Plan to ensure each task is within the minimum standards set out in the Office of Energy Code OF Practice for Safe electrical work on low voltage electrical installations;
- Comply with all applicable occupational health and safety legislation, business and statutory requirements as a minimum;
- Strive to continuously improving OH&S plans and procedures by regularly reviewing industry standards and changes in the work place;
- Involve all our people in OH&S management through contributing to identifying, assessing and controlling hazards and reviewing health and safety performance;
- Ensure all incidents are reported, recorded and causes identified for future awareness of possible risk management, and where injury or illness occurs, assist our people to achieve full recovery through prompt treatment and active rehabilitation;
- Allocate resources to meet the commitments of this Policy.

This signed statement confirms our commitment to this Policy.
